Authorities Withhold Messages Telling of J. Pierpont

Morgan's Passing.

By CAMILIO CLANFARRA.

Rome, April 4.—For some extraordinary reason and in keeping with the general air of secrecy maintained here over J. P. Morgan's liliness and death, I learn that not only was Mr. Morgan's death suppressed from the correspondents here for over three hours, but the accelerate deliberately withheld messages cabled and telegraphical from this city announcing the financier's death. An investigation has been demanded.

Funeral Probably April 14. New York, April 4.—Monday, April 14, prob-bily will be set aside as the day for hold-ing funeral services here over the body of I. P. Morgan. The exact date had not been determined to-day, and will depend upon the time of arrival of the liner France, which is bringing the financier's body from Havre.
